JEWELLERY POP-UP BOUTIQUE

Jewellery designer Karen Morrison is hosting a pop-up shop selling handmade precious and semi-precious jewellery. You'll be able to see her latest collections as well as pick up some pieces from past collections at fantastically low prices. Karen will be launching her new spring/summer 2011 collection at this event. There will also be a brand new collection of friendship bracelets made from silver chain, intertwined with brightly coloured suede and other bracelets with tiny semi-precious beads and delicate sparkly chains with hanging charms. Karen sells her jewellery in outlets throughout the UK as well as on her website. Her jewellery has featured in magazines such as Vogue, Elle, Grazia and ES Magazine and in 2009 she was nominated in the Scottish Fashion Awards for Jewellery Designer of the year.
